Frequently asked questions

How is story criticality rated?

Story criticality is rated by moderators at the time each story is moderated. It is a measure of how critical the most critical part of a story is, according to a criterion-based system. Criticality is rated in order to support our filtered email alerting system for staff, and is not intended for publication.

Sharing and reuse

Contributors to Care Opinion want their stories to get to those who can use them to make a difference, so we encourage you to share this information with others.

Postings submitted via Care Opinion itself can be shared subject to a Creative Commons licence. You can copy, distribute and display postings, and use them in your own work, so long as you credit the source.

Material submitted via NHS Choices is licenced under Crown Copyright.

About Care Opinion

Care Opinion is a not-for-profit social enterprise which enables people to share the story of their care, and perhaps help care services make changes.
